

Mountain Empire Cryptid Research Organization

Sam DeLoach is the founder and Head Researcher for the Mountain Empire Cryptid Research Organization. MECRO has a core team of four members and several other group members as well. MECRO researches in Tennessee, Virginia, and Kentucky. Sam has been researching Cryptids for five years and got interested in Cryptids because of strange activity that he can not explain from the High Knob, Va area. He has also teamed up with several other researchers to find some answers on cryptids. Sam is also involved with Bill Lancaster of Bilco Productions in filming Bigfoot BS(Bill&Sam). Bill and Sam have teamed up and they film evidence, tips, and encounters from individuals from the Mountain Empire area. Sam is also in the documentary, "Cultured Bigfoot" that Bill Lancaster is currently filming and producing. He has also appeared on several Podcasts and radio shows about Cryptids.
